This First Sunday of Advent or the Fourth before Christmas, is the first day of the Liturgical Year. The Mass prepares us this day for the double coming (adventus) of mercy and justice. That is why St. Paul tells us, in the Epistle, to cast off sin in order that, being ready for the coming of Christ as our Savior, we may also be ready for His coming as our Judge, of which we learn in the Gospel. Let us prepare ourselves, by pious aspirations and by the reformation of our life, for this twofold coming. Jesus our Lord will reward those who yearn for Him and await him: "Those who trust in Him shall not be confounded."

Commentary by Fr. Sylvester Juergens S.M. (1894-1969).

When you shall see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is at hand.

EXCÍTA, quæsumus, Dómine, poténtiam tuam, et veni: ut ab imminéntibus peccatórum nostrórum perículis, te mereámur protegéntem éripi, te liberántem salvári: Qui vivis et regnas cum Deo Patre in unitáte Spíritus Sancti Deus: per ómnia sœcula sœculórum.

STIR UP Thy power, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and come: that from the threatening dangers of our sins, we may deserve to be rescued by Thy protection, and be saved by Thy deliverance: Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

BRETHREN, knowing that it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed.

The night is passed and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day: not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in contention and envy: but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gradual (Psalm 24 : 3, 4)

ALL THEY that wait on Thee shall not be confounded, O Lord. Ÿ. Show, O Lord, Thy ways to me: and teach me Thy paths. Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 84. 4.) Show us, O Lord, Thy mercy; and grant us Thy salvation. Alleluia.

Gospel (Luke 21:25–33)

AT THAT TIME Jesus said to His disciples: There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, by reason of the confusion of the roaring of the sea and of the waves: men withering away for fear and expectation of what shall come upon the whole world. For the powers of heaven shall be moved. And then they shall see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with great power and majesty. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is at hand. And He spoke to them a similitude: See the fig tree and all the trees: when they now shoot forth their

IN ILLO TEMPORE: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Erunt signa in sole et luna et stellis, et in terris pressura gentium præ confusione sonitus maris et fluctuum: arescentibus hominibus præ timore et expectatione, quæ supervenient universo orbi: nam virtutes cælorum movebuntur. Et tunc videbunt Filium hominis venientem in nube cum potestate magna et maiestate. His autem fieri incipientibus, respicite et levate capita vestra: quoniam appropinquat redemptio vestra. Preface of Advent

IT IS TRULY meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and places give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, through Christ our Lord; for in Thy mercy and fidelity Thou hast promised Him as Savior to the lost race of men, to instruct the ignorant with His truth, justify the wicked with His holiness, and help the weak by His power. Now that the time draweth nigh that He Whom Thou art to send should come, and the day of our liberation should dawn, with faith in Thy promises, we rejoice with holy exultation. And therefore
