

almighty, eternal God: through Christ our Lord. Who after His Resurrection appeared openly to all His disciples and in the sight of them all was taken up into heaven, that He might make us sharers in His own Divinity. And therefore, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing a hymn to Thy glory, evermore saying: — Sanctus.

COMMUNION (Ps. 67. 33, 34)

SING ye to the Lord, who mounteth above the heaven of heavens to the East, alleluia.

THE CENTRAL IDEA in the liturgy today is the raising of our hearts toward heaven, so that we may begin to dwell in spirit where Jesus has gone before us. "Christ's ascension," says St. Leo, "is our own ascension; our body has the hope of one day being where its glorious Head has preceded it." In fact, Our Lord has already said in His discourse after the Last Supper, "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I shall go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to Myself; that where I am, you also may be" [Jn. 14:2-3]. The Ascension is, then, a feast of joyful hope, a sweet foretaste of heaven. By going before us, Jesus our Head has given us the right to follow Him there some day, and we can even say with St. Leo, "In the person of Christ, we have penetrated the heights of heaven." As in Christ Crucified we die to sin, as in the risen Christ we rise to the life of grace, so too, we are raised up to heaven in the Ascension of Christ. This vital participation in Christ's mysteries is the essential consequence of our incorporation in Him. He is our Head; we, as His members, are totally dependent upon Him and intimately bound to His destiny. "God, who is rich in mercy," says St. Paul, "for His exceeding charity wherewith He loved us ... hath quickened us together in Christ ... and hath raised us up ... and hath made us sit together in the heavenly places through Christ Jesus" [Eph. 2:4-6]. Our right to heaven has been given us, our place is ready; it is for us to live in such a way that we may occupy it someday.

Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Who with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, God, world without end.

LESSON

From the Acts of the Apostles, 1. 1-11.

THE former treatise I made, O Theophilus, of all things which Jesus began to do and to teach, until the day on which, giving commandments by the Holy Ghost to the Apostles whom He had chosen, He was taken up: to whom also He showed Himself alive after His Passion by many proofs, for forty days appearing to them and speaking of the Kingdom of God. And eating together with them, He commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but should wait for the promise of the Father, which you have heard (saith He) by My mouth; for John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. They therefore who were come together asked Him, saying: Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore again the kingdom of Israel? But He said to them: It is not for you to know the times or moments which the Father hath put in His own power: but you shall receive the power of the Holy Ghost coming upon you, and you shall be witnesses unto Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the uttermost part of the earth. And when He had said these things, while they looked on, He was raised up: and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And while they were beholding Him going up to heaven, behold two men stood by them in white garments, who also said: Ye men of Galilee, why stand you looking up to heaven? This Jesus, who is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come as you have seen Him going into heaven.

Et convéscens, præcépit eis ab Jerosólymis ne discéderent, sed exspectárent promissióem Patris, quam audístis (inquit) per os meum; quia Joánnes quidem baptizávit aqua, vos autem baptizabímini Spíritu Sancto non post multos hos dies. Ígitur qui convénerant, interrogábant eum, dicétes: Dómine, si in témpore hoc restítues regnum Israél? Dixit autem eis: Non est vestrum nosse témpora vel moménta quæ Pater pósuit in sua potestáte: sed accipiétis virtútem superveniéntis Spíritus Sancti in vos, et éritis mihi testes in Jerúsalem, et in omni Judaéa et Samária, et usque ad últimum terræ. Et cum hæc dixisset, vidéntibus illis, elevátus est: et nubes suscepit eum ab óculis eórum. GOSPEL

Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Mark, 16. 14-20.

IN ILLO TÉMPORE: Recumbentibus undecim discípulis, apparuit illis Jesus: et exprobrávit incredulitátem eórum et durítiam cordis: quia iis qui víderant eum resurrexísse, non crediderunt. Et dixit eis: Eúntes in mundum univérsum, prædicáte Evangélium omni creatúre. Qui crediderit et baptizátus fuerit, salvus erit: qui vero non crediderit, condemnábitur. Signa autem eos, qui crediderint, hæc sequéntur: In nómine meo dæmónia ejiciént: linguis loquéntur novis: serpéntes tollent: et si mortíferum quid biberint, non eis nocébit: super ægros manus impónent, et bene habébunt. Et Dóminus quidem Jesus, postquam loctútus est eis, assúptus est in cœlum, et sedet a dextris Dei. Illi autem profecti prædicavérunt ubique, Dómino cooperánte, et sermonem confirmánte, sequéntibus signis. — Credo.
