

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

I AM GOING talk to you now about the public crosses, and I am going to give you the reason for their number, for the blessings which flow from them, and for the great honor which the Church pays them. If our interior crosses are so numerous, and if the public crosses, these images of that Cross on which our God died, are also so numerous, it is that we may have always present in our thoughts the reminder that we are the children of a crucified God.

We need not be surprised, my dear brethren, at the honor which the Church pays to this holy wood, which obtains for us so many graces and so many benefits. We see that the Church makes the Sign of the Cross in all her ceremonies, in the administration of all the Sacraments. Why is that? My friends, this is why. It is because all our prayers and all the Sacraments draw from the Cross their power and their virtue. During the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, which is the greatest, the most solemn and the most sublime of all those actions which can glorify God, the priest makes the Sign of the Cross over and over again. God desires that we may never lose the memory of it as the surest means of our salvation and the most formidable instrument for repelling the Devil. He has created us in the form of a cross so that every man might be the image of this cross upon which Jesus Christ died to save us. See how eager the Church is to increase their number? She urges them as a special embellishment on our churches and on all altars; she places them in the most public places.

St. Jean-Marie Baptiste Vianney (1786-1859)*

(in Eastertide)

INTROIT (Gal. 6. 14)

NOS AUTEM GLORIARI oportet in Cruce Dómini nostri Jesu Christi: in quo est salus, vita, et resurrectio nostra: per quem salváti et liberáti sumus. Allelúia, allelúia. Psalm. Deus misereátur nostri et benedicat nobis: illúminet vultum suum super nos, et misereátur nostri. V. Glória Patri, et Filio, et Spirítui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in sécula sæculórum. R. Amen. — Nos autem gloriári ...

BUT it behooves us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection: by whom we are saved, and delivered. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 66. 2. May God have mercy on us and bless us: may He cause the light of His countenance to shine upon us, and may He have mercy on us. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — But it behooves us ...

COLLECT

O GOD, Who didst will that Thy Son should suffer for us the agony of the Cross to deliver us from the power of the enemy: grant to us Thy servants, that we may attain to the grace of the resurrection. Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with Thee ...

DEUS, qui pro nobis Filium tuum crucis patibulum subire voluisti, ut inimici a nobis expelleres potestatem: concede nobis famulis tuis; ut resurrectionis gratiam consequamur. Per eundem Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum...

EPISTLE

From the Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians, 2. 8-11.

BRETHREN: Christ became for us obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. For which cause God also hath exalted Him, and hath given Him a name which is above all names: that in the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

FRATRES: Christus factus est pro nobis obediens usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis. Propter quod et Deus exaltavit illum: et donavit illi nomen, quod est super omne nomen: (hic genuflectitur) ut in nomine Jesu omne genu flectatur, caelestium, terrestrium et infernorum: et omnis lingua confiteatur, quia Dominus Jesus Christus in gloria est Dei Patris.

ALLELUIA (Psalm 95, 10)

ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA. Say ye among the Gentiles, that the Lord hath reigned from the wood.

Alleluia. Sweet the wood, sweet the nails, sweet the load that hangs on thee: thou only wast worthy to bear the King and Lord of heaven. Alleluia.

ALLELUIA, alleluia. Dicite in gentibus, quia Dominus regnavit a ligno.

Alleluia. V. Dulce lignum, dulces clavos, dulcia ferens pondera: quae sola fuisti digna sustinere Regem caelorum, et Dominum. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, 20. 17-19.

AT THAT TIME: Jesus took the twelve disciples apart and said to them: Behold we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man shall be betrayed to the chief priests and the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the Gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified, and the third day He shall rise again.

IN ILLO TEMPORE: Assumpsit Jesus duodecim discipulos secreto, et ait illis: Ecce, ascendemus Jerosolymam, et Filius hominis tradetur principibus sacerdotum, et scribis, et condemnabunt eum morte, et tradent eum gentibus ad illudendum, et flagellandum, et crucifigendum, et tertia die resurget.

OFFERTORY

BY the sign of the holy Cross, O Lord, protect Thy people from the wiles of all our enemies, that we may be able to do Thee worthy service, and that our sacrifice may be well-pleasing in Thy sight. Alleluia.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY CROSS

VERE dignum et justum est, æquum et salutare, nos tibi semper, et ubique gratias agere: Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, æternæ Deus. Qui salutem humani generis in ligno Crucis constituisti: ut unde mors oriebatur, inde vita resurgeret: et qui in ligno vincēbat, in ligno quoque vinceretur, per Christum Dominum nostrum. Per quem majestatem tuam laudant Angeli, adorant Dominationes, tremunt Potestates. Caeli, caelorumque Virtutes, ac beata Seraphim, socia exultatione concēlebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces, ut admitti jubeas, deprecamur, supplicii confessione dicentes: — Sanctus.

IT IS TRULY meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to Thee, holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God: Who didst establish the salvation of mankind on the tree of the Cross: that whence death rose, thence also life might arise again, and that he who overcame by a tree, by a tree also might be overcome: through Christ our Lord. Through whom the Angels praise Thy Majesty, Dominations worship, Powers stand in awe. The heavens and the hosts of heaven with blessed Seraphim unite, exult, and celebrate. And we entreat that Thou wouldst bid our voices too be heard with theirs, singing with lowly praise: — Sanctus.
